EQUILIBRIUM

THE HECTIC ELECTION Campaign period is now history. Though its emotions, were like huge ocean breakers that, at least, temporarily engulfed most of us. Now, with the calm: is the crystal clear perspective; that the objective of both pros and cons, is the QUEST FOR A BETTER LIFE. Thus we move forever forward towards a plateau of objective maturity of thinking. FROM THIS MIND AND SOUL incubation evolves the constructive actions that help us to attain the fuller life.

WITH THE YULETIDE SEASONS upon us, we renew our resolution of PEACE ON EARTH AND GOODWILL TO ALL MEN, and the MERRIEST OF ALL CHRISTMASSES TO OUR READERS.

NOTES From

Suggested reading: Interesting article in "Changing Times", September '58. - Will Your Youngster Qualify for College. "He won't get in unless he takes the right high school courses. Start him planning early."

Talk to the principal, or write during 2nd or 3rd year of high school to College Entrance Examination Board Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 27896, Los Angeles, Calif. Outside interests won't compensate for grades that are low--so don't neglect studies.

Narcotic Film: Had opportunity to see such a film, and recommend highly, as suggested civic group program.

The demand is great--so it seems necessary to request it for your group 3 to 6 months in advance. Narcotic squad detective Thos. Mueller of the Essex County Sheriff's office Newark, N. J. does powerful narrating job. No punches pulled."

Blitz Diet: Featured in Coronet of September '58. Amazing story of the Blitz Diet--how it has helped millions lose 5 lbs in 2 days. INTERESTED?

BY - JEAN DIXON

SINCE LAS. writing many changes have occurred. I resigned from Internal Revenue, closed house, and THE ROAD with hubby (Gene) of The Billy Williams Quartette. Girl friends surprised me in a simply lavish dinner party and gifts at Hour Glass, in Newark, just as tho I were to be married. I really was surprised. I

AFTER 6 WEEKS travel covering Massachusetts, Chicago, Cleveland-Detroit & Canada--none worse for wear-- and supreme pleasure of meeting some of "TOP" society echelon along the way.

IN CHICAGO-Atty & Mrs William (Bill) Starke entertained us at dinner party in their fashionable South Park wdw home

IN CLEVELAND--stayed at one of finest hotels--Carnegie (owned, operated by men of color). Feel safe in recommending it.

Introduced myself to friend Jean Irvin's family, sister, brother, father who went all out to make us feel at home.

Ran across John Pulling (formerly of Kearny N. J. and his lovely wife He quite a successful lawyer.

IN DETROIT renewed acquaintance with old schoolmate, for whom our daughter is named. Detroit's Uncle Briggs, selected No. 1 out of 10 best dressed Detroit women.

The Peter Briggs entertained the Gourmet Club (5 couples), at dinner in their fashionable home, outskirts of Detroit. Menus usually consist of foreign wines and foods--kept secret until formally clad diners seated. We considered ourselves flattered, honored guests.

HOME--just in time to attend the "Open House" social party of lovely Dilletantes at gorgeous home of Trudy Parker (Orange)--also the beautiful Fashion Show featuring Milliner Emily Miles and many couturiers in Montclair.

TURKEY DAY--with family--then we board a plane for New Orleans for one month--then to Ft. Lauderdale in Fla.--then 3 months in Las Vegas in Nevada. So until Spring of next year, SC LONG AND SEVENTY THREE..

JAZZ AT THE PHILHARMONIC

By FRANCES McDANIEL

A capacity audience of discerning garbed ladies, and sartorially splendid gents were on hand at Moscov for Norman Granz' highly touted annual visit, featuring musical unitaries, such as the "Modern Jazz Quartette," Ella Fitzgerald, Gene Krupa Trio, "Dizzy" Gillespie, "Flip" Phillips, Oscar Peterson Quartette, et al.

Promptly at 2:30 house lights dimmed (two to anyone stumbling around for seats). The vast assemblage of devotees to the "flatted 5th" and "diminished 8th" started on a thrillingly exciting trip to "O. Blah-Dee" land, via frantic sounds from a groovily lighted stage.

Jazz classics such as "These Foolish Things," "Body and Soul," "Anything Goes" appropriate for the highly original creative paving consistently displayed by the artists. "Diz" acclaimed high priest of bop receiving special accolades for his skillful handling of his unusual humor titillating born.

Jacques & Co. Modern Jazz Quartette, captivated with sophisticated and quiet, yet mad yowling interpretations of "Ain't No Carol," "God Rest Ye Merrie Gentlemen," starting in delicately subdued tones, tinkling bells in the back ground, and suddenly bursting into the swiftest, jinniest, cleverest arrangement of chords and beautiful wailed tones... GROOVY!!

Oscar Peterson's absolutely "go to" arrangement of the beautiful ballad "Tenderly" backed by other astute members of his quartette, literally "milked" the song for every possible drop, with the overall effect hauntingly sweet, yet compellingly rhythmic and artistic.

The one and only Ella Fitzgerald efficiently "taking over" vocal department. She's the greatest, there is no doubt.

The concert closed with all the artists "jamming" Ella doing a surprisingly fine job on the HARMONICA, no less, and after at least 24 choruses—the audience still screaming for more.

SUMMARY A GREAT DAY FOR JAZZ.
